

Three Escapes, One Soul: A Journey Into Creole Elegance

Immerse yourself in the spirit of the Guadeloupe Islands, where authenticity meets the refined art of Creole living. The independent hotel group Des Hôtels & Des Îles invites you to explore the archipelago through its three distinctive properties. Guests can expect an experience shaped by natural elegance, heartfelt hospitality, and timeless charm.

For over three decades, Des Hôtels & Des Îles has embodied a vision of Caribbean hospitality that is both, refined, and deeply rooted. Across Grande-Terre and Basse-Terre, its three unique addresses celebrate the Creole art of living, blending elegance, warmth, and a strong sense of place. From the pristine sands of Le Gosier to the verdant hills of Trois-Rivières, each hotel boasts a unique ambiance. All of these establishments share a common commitment: to immerse guests in the authentic soul of Guadeloupe, where tropical ease meets vibrant cultural heritage.

● La Toubana Hôtel & Spa, a hidden-gem above the caribbean sea

La Toubana Hôtel & Spa is located on a hillside overlooking the turquoise waters of Caravelle Beach in Sainte-Anne. The hotel features bungalows and suites that offer guests a chance to pause and savor the moment. As the inaugural five-star hotel in Guadeloupe, it epitomizes the finest aspects of Caribbean culture, offering panoramic vistas of Marie-Galante. Under the direction of Chloé Vial Collet, granddaughter of the founder, she continues to uphold its legacy. “I was born and raised here. Now, my children live by La Toubana’s rhythm,” she says with emotion. The Caribbean-style bungalows, sun-drenched suites, and discreet villas are set amid luxuriant vegetation, blending harmoniously into the landscape. The infinity pool seamlessly connects to the horizon, the Maison Sisley Spa offers a tropical oasis of serenity, and the gourmet restaurant elevates local ingredients with creative finesse. Personalized service and understated luxury complement the experience. Chloé explains that the fifth star was chosen to reflect La Toubana spirit, which is characterized by charm, a smile, and care. And indeed, it does. La Toubana is not a standard luxury resort. It offers a more authentic experience, providing guests with a genuine sense of welcome that encourages them to return or never leave at all.

● La Créole Beach Hôtel & Spa, vibrant hospitality in the heart of Grand-Terre

In the vibrant town of Le Gosier, La Créole Beach Hôtel & Spa is a welcoming destination that caters to families and curious travelers alike. The property’s spacious rooms, which are filled with natural light, complement lush tropical gardens, beachfront dining options, a kids’ club, a wellness center, and attentive concierge services, contributing to a positive and relaxing stay for all guests. The hotel has been designed with guests seeking generous hospitality and a relaxed atmosphere in mind. Every detail of the hotel reflects the vibrant spirit of Guadeloupe.

● Le Jardin Malanga, a discreet boutique hotel nestled in Basse-Terre

Le Jardin Malanga is a hotel located in the Trois-Rivières hills of Basse-Terre, offering a peaceful retreat for guests. Set on a former plantation overlooking the Caribbean Sea and sheltered by the majestic Soufrière volcano, this boutique hotel is steeped in both history and serenity. Its century-old colonial house and independent cottages welcome guests seeking tranquility, meaningful interactions, and authenticity. At la table d’hôtes, local flavors are highlighted, while nearby trails offer opportunities for exploration, reflection, and a genuine sense of escape.

Des Hôtels & Des Îles offers a diverse collection of experiences across its three distinctive destinations: seaside elegance, family-friendly vibrancy, and serene seclusion. Yet all are united by a shared philosophy: a commitment to service excellence, deep respect for the environment, and an authentic, human connection.

This is a different kind of luxury, one that speaks to the soul. ■
